

Please do not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. Since the Indiana Privacy law has been implemented, I am no longer annoyed by telemarketers interrupting my family time. I do not want a change in the law which would allow companies who consider me an "existing customer" to solicit me via telephone. Thank you for your consideration.